

Vaccination Policy

Texas Beauty College does not require a student to give proof of any vaccinations; however, the school recommends that a student contact their primary care physician for any vaccinations that may be required as part of a wellness checkup.